Extra Game if you have extra time.

Train

Lesson 2 : same as Lesson 1

Review Names & Rules

Skip Forehand Line and go right to Feed the Monkeys. AND you may have time for the Train

Lesson 3: Backhands same as Lesson 1, Skip Names & Rules, AND Replace Forehands with Backhands

Lesson 4: Adjust your lesson plan to your audience. If kids are older, have them run laps and shuffle, instead of Follow the leader freeze, and don't do walk the dog, Catch & Sweep Mice, instead start with Feed the Monkeys and Train.

Lesson 5-12: Keep the structure & keep incorporating Backhands. Remind them about earning Medals.

Warm-up from Lesson 1: Bounce Ups & Downs - push them to start seeing how many they can do in a row

Game 1: Feed the Monkeys - Earn points if they hit the ball in. Alternate forehands and backhands when they drop feed the ball

Game 2: New Games, Especially Skyball for Older kids- teach a new game and then repeat the next week

Games: Younger kids

Castle

Animal Tennis

Baby Bird's Nest

Red Light Green Light

Waterfall

Ski Run- challenging, and excellent

Hockey Tennis
